GAER, TRACY G. WAGGONER,
PATRICK M. MORIARTY,

Defendants.

NO. 2:19-cv-00539-RSM

STIPULATED MOTION AND ORDER
EXTENDING INITIAL SCHEDULING

STIPULATION

Pro Se Plaintiff Lori D. Shavlik and Defendants, by and through their counsel of record, stipulate to a two-week extension of the initial scheduling dates established by the Court's April 17, 2019 Order. Dkt. # 7. Counsel for Defendants, Joseph B. Genster, requested that Plaintiff agree to an extension because he will be out of the office from May 13, 2019 through May 28, 2019 to attend his daughter's college graduation in Washington D.C. and visit relatives on the East Coast. Plaintiff graciously agreed. For those reasons, the parties stipulate to the entry of an order extending the following deadlines:

1. Deadline for FRCP 26(f) Conference extended from May 15, 2019 to May 29, 2019;
2. Deadline for Initial Disclosures extended from May 22, 2019 to June 5, 2019; and
3. Deadline for filing Joint Status Report and Discovery Plan extended from May 29, 2019 to June 12, 2019.

DATED this 7th day of May, 2019.

1
ORDER

2 Based on the foregoing stipulation of the parties, the Court finds that good cause has
3 been shown for a two-week extension of the initial scheduling dates (Dkt. # 7). The deadline
4 dates have been amended as follows:

5     1. Deadline for FRCP 26(f) Conference extended to May 29, 2019;
6     2. Deadline for Initial Disclosures extended to June 5, 2019; and
7     3. Deadline for filing Joint Status Report and Discovery Plan extended to June 12, 2019.

8                 IT IS SO ORDERED this 10th day of May, 2019.
